The Reign of Autumn.

The rust is over the red of the clover,
The green is under the gray,
And down the hollow the fleet-winged swallow
Is flying away and away.

Fled are the roses, dead are the roses,
The glow and the glory done,
And down the hollow the fleet winged swallow
Flying the way o' the sun.

In the place of the summer a dread new-comer
His solemn state renews;
A crimson splendor instead of the tender
Daisy, and darling dews.

But oh! the sweetness, the full completeness
That under his reign are born!
Russet and yellow in apples mellow,
And wheat and millet and corn.

His frosts so hoary touch with glory
Maple and oak and thorn;
And rising and falling his winds are calling,
Like a hunter through his horn.

No thrifty sower, but a just mower
That comes when the day is done,
With warmth a-beaming and gold a-gleaming,
Like sunset after the sun.

And while fair weather and frost together
Color the woods so gay,
We must remember that chill December
Has turned his steps this way.

And say, as we gather in the house together
And pile the logs on the hearth,
Help us to follow the light little swallow
E'en to the ends of the earth.

—[Alice Cary.

NEWSPAPER PATRONAGE.—Newspaper patronage is composed of as many different varieties as the rainbow has colors. One man comes in, subscribes for the paper, and pays for it in advance. He goes home and reads it with the proud satisfaction that it is his. He hands in his advertisement, asks the price, pays for it, goes to his place of business and reaps the advantage. This is newspaper patronage.

Another man says: "You may put my name down on your books," and goes off without saying a word about pay. Time passes on, you want your pay, what is honestly due; he gets mad and orders his paper stopped. This is called newspaper patronage!

Another man has been a subscriber for a long time, but has never paid a cent. At last he becomes tired of you—want a change, and thinks he must have a paper printed in some distant city. He tells the postmaster he don't want your paper, and it is returned to you marked "refused." Does he call and pay? No; he wants the money to pay for his city paper. And this, too, is called newspaper patronage!

Another man brings in a fifty cent advertisement, and wahts a two dollar notice given it. If you refuse, he goes off and mutters something about competition and extravagant rates. I think you editors like that kind of patronage.

Another man lives near you, but does not take the paper. He don't like the editor, or the paper is too small, or its politics don't suit him. Yet he goes to his neighbor, reads it, finds fault with it and quarrels with the opinion of the editor. Sometimes he sees an article he likes, and begs for the number to take home. This is also called newspaper patronage.

Another man takes two or three city papers, and can't afford to take his county paper, but he likes it and comes into the office and begs one almost every week. This is first-class patronage!—over the left.

Another man likes the paper; he takes a copy himself, pays for it, and does all he can to get new subscribers to it; he never finds fault with every article, original or selected. If any little item of interest occurs in his neighborhood, he drops into the office and tells of it. This is certainly newspaper patronage.

Another man comes and says: "The year for which I paid is about to expire, I want to pay for it another. No discount on that kind of patronage.—[Exchange.

SENSATION AT A PARTY.—A ludicrous affair came off in Detroit a few evenings since. There was a large colored party which was to dine at a gymnasium. The table was all prepared, and the guests ready to sit down, when an ambitious darkey, weighing about two hundred pounds, thought he would edify the company by an exhibition on the flying trapeze, but when over the centre of the table he fell upon it with a crash that upset and scattered the whole concern. The Free Press says: "His posterior parts crashed into the gorgeous glass center-piece, breaking it into the smithereens; one foot kicked a turkey into the crowd, the other landed a pie into the lap of an ebony damsel; the head of the fallen body bounced into a dish of ice-cream, while the frantic hands and arms did desperate work with dishes and eatables all around. A frantic shriek of dismay rent the air, imprecations, cries and laughter followed, and an indescribable scene of confusion filled the hall. 'Get out o' dat grub, you culled cuss!' yelled the waiter. 'O, Lord,' shrieked Dinah, 'de dinnus's dun gone spiled, fo' shu;' and a thousand other lamentations and ejaculations were heard in intermingled confusion. At last the overpowering ludicrousness of the situation burst upon the party; they forgot their losses and the scene around them and burst into the wildest guffaws of boisterous laughter; pen or pencil could not do justice to the scene. It could only be appreciated by an eye-witness."

A LADY asked a very silly Scotch nobleman how it happened that the Scots who came out of their own country were, generally speaking, men of more abilities than those who remained at home? "Oh, madam," said he, "the reason is obvious. At every outlet there are persons stationed to examine all who pass, that, for the honor of the country, no one be permitted to leave it who is not a man of understanding."

"Then," said she, "I suppose your lordship was smuggled."

HE that makes his son worthy of esteem by giving him a liberal education, has a far better title to his obedience and duty, than he that gives him a large estate without it. —[Socrates.

SECRET SOCIETIES are of a very ancient origin. Cain married the daughter of a Nod fellow, and it is even supposed that our first parents had a "Lodge in some vast wilderness."

A School Boy's Letter.

John Quill gets off the following neat burlesque in the New York Sunday Dispatch:

BIRCHTON ACADEMY, Sept 20.

DEAR POP: I am getting along first rate at the school, and I like it very much, all except Whacks, the assistant—"Old Beeswax," we call him, and we are down on him like a pile-driver, all us boys, for he's ignorant. Why, he's so ignorant he don't know a blackboard from a dark night, no he don't; and Bill Ferguson he put a torpedor under each leg of Old Beesey's chair, yesterday, and when he sat down (you see he set down like he had ballast in him,) why the torpedors they exploded and they like to blowed him through the roof. Golly, but wasn't he scared! He looked at the almanac to make sure it wasn't the 4th of July, and then he came down, looking mad, and licked Bill like blazes. But Bill said he didn't care a cent, and the next time he would sprinkle gunpowder in his hair, and bust his old frontispiece off of him.

Dr. Goggles, he's a nice enough old feller, only he will sit and chew gum drops right before us boys, and never say "take some," once.

He wears green specs, and Bill Ferguson, he called him "old four eyes" one day, which the doctor, he heard Bill say it, and he nailed him and dragged him up to the desk and then he gave us a lecture, and said there was once a boy he knew, and he was about Bill's size, who insulted a gray-headed old man, and called him wicked names, and the next day—the very next morning—that boy's mother died, and his sister broke out with bunions.

Bill, he cried, while the doctor held him by the shirt collar, but he winked at the boys as he came away, and wrote on a piece of paper, and threw it over to me, that he thought the doctor was "a blower," and he darsent hit a boy of his size.

I want some new books about ten of them, and they will cost eight dollars. Please send the money for them. Don't send the books, for the doctor likes us to buy them here.

I don't want any money for taffy or marbles, for don't care about them; but be sure not to send anything but the money for the books.

I am in good health. I was taken sick last week, and had a sore eye for a few days, but it is well now.

We was a playing mumble-peg out on the grass, and Bill Ferguson, he grabbed my knife. I told him he had better give that knife up or I would tell you, and get you to lick him when you came down, and he said he could lick you and a dozen like you, and then he dared me to knock a chip off his shoulder.

And Jake McGinnis, he pushed me against him and that knocked the chip off, and Bill, he struck me over the nose three or four times, and said he'd "bust me on the snoot" if I didn't dry up, for I couldn't help crying, and I was taken sick and could not go to school all that day.

And the doctor, he locked Bill up in the garret, but he didn't care, for he clumb out on the roof, and was chasing around after Tom cats, up and down almost all the morning and pulling plaster out of the chimney to throw at people in the street.

Give my love to all at home, and don't forget the money for the books.

Bill is about fourteen; do you think he can lick you?

Please send the money, and believe me your affectionate son,

H. M. WILKINS.

P. S.—Don't forget to send the money for those books.

RESPONDING TO THE JUDGE.—The New Orleans Picayune says the judge of one of the New Orleans municipal courts sat gloomy and grand on his bench of ermine. The prisoner occupied the dock, apparently meek and downcast. She had a merry twinkle in her eye, however, that promised mischief, and had the magnate but perceived it, he would have been more careful in his questions.

"How many times are you coming up here?"

"What, yer honor?"

"How many times are you coming before me? This is the third time this present week.

"Oh, no, yer honor."

"Didn't I see you here yesterday?"

"Why, yer honor, it was last night yer seed me, in the concert saloon. It was a bit of a drink we had together, and yer honor did talk beautifully with yer cunning ways and saucy jokes. Aye, yer honor's the man for the girls. The divil admire ye, but yees are smart."

"Stop your mouth—you can go."

"Thank ye, yer honor."

The prisoner went out, the judge blushed, and the audience roared.

OFFENSIVE BED-FELLOWS.—The Hamilton (O.) True Telegraph says: One of the Pendleton Escort boys, when he got into New York, late at night, undertook to go on his own hook in finding a lodging. Entering a hotel he was shown into a diminutive room, suggestive of anything but comfort, but his scruples were pacified by the assurance of the clerk that the last time Gen. Grant was in the city he had slept in that same bed. It is related that the stranger from Porkopolis, swearing that he could stand anything that Grant ever did, at once retired, but in a trice was attacked by a countless host of bed-bugs. Finding it useless to contend against such overwhelming numbers, he hastily attired himself and sought the office. "Why," said the astonished clerk, "I thought you was satisfied to stay in the room all night." "Now, look here," said the Cincinnatian, "I've got pluck enough to sleep where General Grant has slept, but I'll be eternally cursed if I can make up my mind to sleep with the whole Radical party."

A SCULPTOR, who was engaged to carve a monument and select an epitah for a deceased manufacturer of fire-works, seeing the inscription on the tombstone of a celebrated musician, "He has gone to the place where only his own harmony can be exceeded"—and thinking it was a very neat thing, he adapted it to his purpose by changing one word, and carved on the monument: "He's gone to the place where only his own fireworks can be excelled."

A WARNING TO DRINKERS.—Jinks drank too much, as all his friends knew, but like many another good fellow who drinks, it was hard to convince Jinks that he ought to let up on it. He boarded at one of the hotels, and night after night he would remain until past midnight at the saloon bar, "histing" it in, rendering it necessary morning after morning to have a cocktail brought up from the saloon before he could get out of bed, and then another to brace him up for breakfast.

Finally, the bar tender, who brought up the drinks, remonstrated with him, telling him that if he continued his course much longer, he would certainly have the "Jim-Jams." "The what?" asked Jinks, not exactly comprehending. "The man with the poker—get snakes after you—see things—have the tremens." "Oh, nonsense," said Jinks, "you can't scare me. I have drank just so for fifteen years. It never hurt me. A cocktail or two in the morning, and I'm all right, always."

The bar-man had more sympathy for a man on the downward road of imtemperance than most bar-men have, and he determined to give Jinks a fright. Accordingly, the next morning, when the well-known ring from Jenks' room was heard, the bar-tender prepared a very enticing gin cocktail, and placing it on a waiter, surrounded it with sundry toads, lizards, small snakes, etc. This he conveyed to Jinks' room, that individual, who had loaded himself with "benzine" the night before rather more heavily than usual, nervously awaiting it.

"Morning," said Jenks, stretching out a hand that trembled some, "glad to see you—devlish dry this morning—what's them?" starting back in horror. "Why, what do you mean?" said the man, in innocent wonder. "Why the toads, snakes, and things around the tumbler!" said Jinks, shrinking to the back of the bed, and viewing the loathsome reptiles with aversion and dismay. "Why, Jinks, my man, there is nothing around the tumbler—nothing on the waiter except the cocktail." "I tell you there are. I see snakes, toads and lizards there." "Ah, Jinks (with a sight), I was afraid how it would be. I told you yesterday morning, don't you remember? You are seeing things when there ain't things to see. You've got 'em sure."

Jinks raised himself up in bed. "Do you mean to tell me," said he, "that there ain't no snakes and things there?" "Most assuredly I do." Jinks considered a moment, and then laying down, said in a sorrowful voice, and with a mild repellant wave of the hand, "take away your cocktail!"

The story got out. Jinks found that he was sold; but he quit drinking for every time he put his nose into a saloon where he used to "infest," some one would sing out: "Take away your cocktail!"

A COUPLE of farm servants on a plantation in the southern part of Alabama, who had been asleep in the loft of a barn, were awakened one morning recently, by a great commotion in the hay-mow beneath them, and on looking down saw a scene, which probably, is without a parallel. Swarming in through an open window was a perfect cloud of wasps, who were attacking a young army of rats, whose squealing had aroused the two farm hands. The rats stood upon their hind legs, in a perfect paroxysm of rage and fear, and gnashed their teeth at the wasps, who stung them remorselessly. The bodies of the rats were terribly swollen by the poison of the insects; and in their rage and fury turned and bit each other. The hay-loft was strewn with the dead bodies of rats, until at last the survivors fled from the scene and left the wasps masters of the situation.

DESCRIPTION OF TOILETS.—Miss Po-l-y Sm-th, old Smith's daughter, wore a short dress of sorrel poplin, striped with brown gewgaws, with a tight-fitting basque made out of the seat of her papa's old nankeen pants. Sleeves of moire antique to match her underskirt, and bonnet of red oak bark tied with elm strings. Old Smith is said to own a controlling interest in the Alaska cod-fisheries; needless to say Miss Sm-th looked ravishingly beautiful.

Miss R b-ns-n, daughter of Sol Robinson Esq., the wealthy Front street soap-boiler. This charming young lady looked more distingue than ever in a suit of Kentucky jean trimmed with squirrel's tails; blue fringe around the skirt put on with Spaulding's glue; rustic bonnet of gourd leaves trimmed to correspond with dress. She was the cynosure of all eyes, and seemed in brilliant spirits.

IN India, recently, a surgeon died in one of those short illnesses so characteristic of the tropics; he felt unwell in the morning, and before sundown was a corpse. His widow, a mere girl, could not believe that he was dead, and refused to leave him, frantically expressing to the doctor her disbelief. Her husband had not been dead many minutes when this occurred, and the surgeon, pointing to the floor, said: "My dear Mrs. ——, if you persist in doubting me, look there," and by some mysterious instinct a broad column of ants had scented the room of death, and tens of thousands of them were already within the door, and scaling the rude couch on which lay the so lately living man.

A LADY parting from her husband a few days since, in the cars at Boston, was overheard by the passengers to utter the following paragraph, all in one breath: "Good-by, Will. Write to me every day, won't you? I'll expect a letter three times a week any way. Take good care of my Sunday School class, for I'll want it when I come back. If Miss Smith calls don't give her more than fifty cents, for we have to support our own church, you know. Don't forget to bring my silk dress and my other shoes. Come as soon as you can. Good-by. Don't forget your cane, and let your moustache grow."

WHEN it was asked a New Zealand chief why he refused to become a christian, he stretched out three fingers, and said: "I have come to a cross road, and I see three ways—the English, the Wesleyan, and the Roman; I am sitting down and debating which road I shall take."

THE height of impodence: Taking shelter from the rain in an umbrella shop.

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

STAURDAY, : : : NOVEMBER 21, 1868.

L. P. FISHER, 20 and 21 New Merchant's Exchange, is our authorized agent in San Francisco. For Eastern Advertising, Mr. Fisher is represented by S. M. Pettengill & Co., of New York and Boston.

HUDSON & MENET, 41 Park Row, New York, sole agents for the DEMOCRAT in the Eastern States.

Second Volume.

With the present number commences the second volume of the DEMOCRAT. One year ago we entered upon the uncertain experiment of journalism with the advantage of but little experience in newspaper life. We were encouraged in the undertaking by the good wishes and prompt support of many warm friends, and however far we may have fallen short of their expectations, we have battled as best we could with all the difficulties which beset the life of a journalist, and feel at this moment a pride in having maintained the most pleasant social relations throughout the year with those by whose assistance we have been enabled to make the DEMOCRAT a success. The courtesy with which we have been treated by our brethren of the press (almost without exception) has also proved an enjoyment in our path of duty during the year, and will be the subject of pleasant remembrance in future. Our aim in the commencement of a new volume shall be, as in the past, to advocate fearlessly through triumph, as well as defeat, those political principles which we deem best calculated to advance the interests of the whole country. In our county affairs it is our intention to advocate such measures as will be conducive to the interests of the entire community, without reference to particular localities. We have shared the pleasure of those who have witnessed the rapid advancement in wealth and prosperity which has blest our county during the past year, and shall always feel a pride in witnessing her progress in everything pertaining to the happiness of the people. Thanking our patrons for their generous support, we promise to extend to the utmost of our ability the usefulness of our paper.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The Central Pacific Railroad is now completed to a point in the Twelve-mile canyon, four hundred and thirty miles east of Sacramento.

From the end of the completed track of the Central Pacific Company's road, to Monument Point, at the North end of Salt Lake, is two hundred and thirty-three miles. On the 6th of November the Union Pacific Company had completed their track to within forty miles of the Bear River Station. From Bear River Station to Monument Point is two hundred and fifteen miles; total distance from the end of the completed track to the Union Pacific Company's road to Monument Point, is two hundred and fifty-five miles, so that the Union Pacific have twenty-two miles more of road to complete to Monument Point than the Central Pacific.

As Echo Canyon is by some fixed as the point of connection, we will add that the Central Pacific Company have about one hundred miles of road more to complete to make connection at Echo Canyon, east of Salt Lake City, than the Union Pacific Company.

As before stated, the distance from the end of the completed track of the Central Pacific Company's road to Monument Point, is two hundred and thirty-three miles, and from the end of the completed track of the Union Pacific Company's road to Monument Point is two hundred and fifty-five miles, making the the total distance from the completed end of the Central Pacific road to the completed end of the Union Pacific road, but four hundred and eighty-eight miles, and of the four hundred and eighty-eight miles, over one hundred miles are now graded and ready for the ties, the iron and the necessary stations, etc.—[Capital Reporter.

GRECIAN BEND.—A most ungallant editor gets off the following burlesque on the Grecian bend. Ladies in his vicinity, who have adopted the bend from upright motives, have reason to give him the sack:

It is warranted a perfect fit. Here it is as given by a young lady who tried it very successfully: Rise in the morning before breakfast; on an empty stomach eat one pint of green chustnuts, two large, hard, green apples, one watermelon, half pound raw cabbage, and a quarter of a pound of honey. A little milk and vinegar will add to the effect. The bend in the most approved form will appear in about half an hour, and the young lady can put a camp kettle on her back for a hump, and take the street with the most confident assurance that the bend will continue several hours.

TO PURCHASERS OF STATE LANDS.—The Register of the State Land Office has given notice to purchasers of State Lands that in January next, under the requirements of an "Act to provide for the management and sale of the lands belonging to the State," approved March 28, 1868, he will prepare a list showing all purchasers who have not made the payments in accordance with law, either for Swamp, School or other State lands. All persons who fail to make payment of arrearages, and also the interest in advance for the year 1869 on or before the last day of December, 1868, will be reported to the District Attorney of their county, whose duty it will be to commence suit to annul their title. Purchasers who are delinquent should make payment before the 1st of January 1869, and save cost.—[Colusa Sun.

THE Louisville Journal says: Is the negro thankful for anything that is done to relieve and maintain him? No. Do what you will for him, he'll think that you haven't done enough. Give him half the money you have, and he'll think himself entitled to the other half. Bestow upon him the whole, and he'll think that you should go to work and earn more for him.

A FLOOD PREDICTED.—A German philospher predicts that Europe and America will be submerged in five hundred million years from this date. It is to be hoped that this news will not cause the boat-builders to go on a "strike."

Stand Firm.

No matter what may have been the causes that led to the defeat of the Democratic party at the late election, it ill-becomes any who profess to be attached to the principles of Democracy, to spend time in fault-finding and declaring what might have been done had this or that measure been adopted, or some other candidate nominated. Our defeat is simply a matter of fact, and no amount of ill-timed advice can alter the decree of the people as expressed at the ballot-box. There is, however, a plain duty to be performed by every one who professes to believe the principles of Democracy are best calculated to secure, ultimately, peace and prosperity to the country. Other elections will soon transpire in this State, and it remains to be seen whether the enemy shall triumph again, or whether by a strict adherence to the cause of right, and energetic, united action, the Democracy will secure a victory which is easily within their reach, and which may yet be the means of preserving the country from the ruin of Radical extravagance and corruption. Let no one despair, but firmly buckle on the armor of Democracy and prepare to meet the enemy in the future with a determination to conquer. Let there be no break in the ranks, no compromise of principle or foolish bickerings and fault-findings, but for the country's good it should rather be considered the duty of every true Democrat to stand firm in the maintenance, intact, of the organization of the grand old party from which the country has derived so many years of prosperity. In every county in the State the organization of Democratic Clubs should be maintained. Meetings of these clubs should be held at least once a fortnight, now, and oftener on the approach of next Fall elections in this State. We are glad to learn that in our own county a commendable spirit exists among leading Democrats, urging the importance of keeping up our organizations. Club meetings have already been called since the election, and no matter what course may be pursued by the party in other localities, we feel assured that the Democratic record of Yolo county in the future will be still brighter than it has been in the past.

Prospects Ahead.

The almost magical influence by which, in so short a time wondrous changes have been wrought in the features of the country since the "pale face" first formed settlements on the Pacific Coast, has challenged the admiration of the world. The wild beasts of the forest have been driven to their lairs, and where they once roamed unmolested, gardens, decorated in beauty, have sprung into existence, and the hillsides are laden with the luscious product of the thrifty vine. Our own community forms no part of an exception to the general rule of progress so apparent throughout the State, but here, within the limits of Yolo county, the same spirit of enterprise has been manifested and the same reward of labor bestowed which a moral, industrious and persevering people always reap from the generous hand of Providence. Our rapidly increasing population for several years past has been of a character calculated to maintain the healthy moral and intellectual standing of the community as well as to develop the rich resources of the stores of nature. As a consequence, houses of worship, neatly and conveniently constructed, have sprung up in different portions of the county; institutions of learning have been nourished in our midst, rivaling in everything pertaining to advancement in the arts and sciences those which have been much longer established in older settled communities; the soil, by an intelligent system of culture, has been made to yield in abundance all the rich products that contribute to the value of the richest markets in the world. In fact, we may well consider ourselves a favored people. The same spirit of progress that has marked our past career, opens out an inviting future. Even now the most favorable indications exist of another prosperous season and rich harvest. May both be enjoyed by a contented people.

SINGULAR FREAK.—The following incident, says the Kentucky Sentinel, was related in our presence at the "Boisseau Hotel," on Friday morning, by a gentleman from Butler county. He stated that during a severe storm which passed recently over the village of Morgantown, in that county, a lady was standing at the window of a private residence, looking out upon the contending elements, when suddenly a flash of lightning passed through the window, severely shocking the young lady, but otherwise doing no damage. Upon investigation, it was ascertained that the likeness, or photograph, of a beautiful alanthus tree, which stood immediately in front of the window, by electric flash had been impressed upon the bosom of the young lady, where it still remains plainly visible, and within all the indelibleness of the natural flesh.

Mob Outrages in Lake County.

By dispatches received in this city we learn that on Sunday morning last, 15th inst., an armed mob of 300 men, from the upper portion of Clear Lake, surprised the parties in charge of the extensive grist mill property located two miles below the outlet of the lake, took into custody the Sheriff and his deputies, Judge Holloway, the County Judge of Lake, the superintendent of the mill works, with other prominent citizens who might be thought friendly to law and order, and then deliberately fired the flouring, plaining and saw mills, and destroyed the dam.

The pretext for these high-handed proceedings is found in the following circumstances: In consequence of the excessive rainfall of the past two winters the water in Clear Lake—a sheet some 25 miles long by from 2 to 10 miles wide—has been very high, and the low land about the upper and wider part of the lake, which is occupied and more or less cultivated by settlers, has been overflowed. The overflow has been attributed by the Upper Lake people to the dam of the mill company, which is located some two miles below the outlet of the lake, on Cache creek. The mill folks contend that they have really increased the discharging capacity of the outlet, by clearing it of logs and other obstructions, and that the overflow is wholly due to the excessive discharges from a water-shed 450 miles square, which must all find vent through the narrow outlet of the creek. The question at issue has been in court, and the facts brought out showed that the dam was not the cause of the high water, whereupon the indictments brought were dismissed. This result seems to have exasperated the Upper Lake people, who have taken the law into their own hands, as above stated. We learn that the dam has been built 15 years, and that many of the persons engaged in the outrage described have settled in the country long since it was constructed. The flouring mill was a very complete one, and one of the best in the State, capable of grinding 24 tons of wheat daily. The saw and plaining-mill was also very complete, and capable of turning out 24,000 feet of lumber daily. There was burned with the mills over 100 tons of wheat and a large quantity of flour and lumber. Yesterday, a requisition came to the Governor for 200 troops to assist the authorities in maintaining the law and protecting the property. Unfortunately, before troops could be got there, the work of destruction was done. The mills were owned in part by citizens of San Francisco. They were an important feature of the industry, business and taxable resources of Lake county, and their destruction at the hands of an armed mob is a serious blow to its reputation and development. The property was of great value, and under the law passed by the last Legislature the county will be obliged to make good every dollar of the loss. Such high-handed proceedings must prove a sore job to the guilty parties, who probably belonged to the ignorant and prejudiced class, which has notoriously discouraged all enterprise in portions of the upper Coast Range counties for many years past.—[S. F. Bulletin.

EARTHQUAKES.—It is a historical fact that few very destructive earthquakes have ever occured in a latitude so far north of the equator as San Francisco. But aside from this consolatory reflection, the experience of cities within the earthquake latitude, proves that even terribly destructive earthquakes have never yet resulted in the permanent ruin of towns favorably located for commerce or manufactures. Lisbon, the scene of the most terrible earthquake on record, was rebuilt upon the exact spot of its ruin, and is to-day a large and flourishing city; and a number of cities in South America and the East Indies have been rebuilt more than once, after severe earthquake visitations. In fact, speculation and commerce are invincible by either destructive natural phenomena or epidemic visitations. New Orleans grows in spite of yellow fever; Cairo and Alexandria defy the plague; Naples dares Vesuvius, and Lisbon, Lima and Curacoa stand upon sites which have been leveled by earthquakes. It is entirely safe then to assume that San Francisco will not be frightened into a stoppage of growth by even much heavier earthquake shocks than we have yet experienced. The lesson we have received should teach us the necessity of improving the style of our buildings; of securing better foundations, and erecting stronger walls, without the top-heavy cornices which have heretofore been so fashionable. Americans are more daring and defiant than the denizens of the earthquake regions proper, and we verily believe that if one-half of San Francisco was to-day laid in ruins by an earthquake, to-morrow would see everybody at work repairing the damages.—[Dispatch and Vanguard.

THE REPUBLICAN VICTORY AND GREENBACKS.—Almost at the same time with the news of the Republican triumph, came the intelligence of a commercial panic in New York, and of the promised re-issue of an unstated amount of greenbacks. The latter consist of notes redeemed but not canceled, which the Secretary of the Treasury has decided that he can issue to the amount of four hundred millions. The entire affair is a beautiful commentary on the statesmanship displayed by the Republicans. While the Chief Executive of the nation is deprived of the power of removing a thieving official, the Secretary of the Treasury is invested with an almost unlimited power over the money market, and can allay or probably make a panic therein at will. Without making any reflection on Mr. McCulloch, it is to be hoped that some satisfactory financial condition than one which leaves the commercial interests of New York dependent on the good sense and good will of an official, will soon be obtained.—[S. F. Monitor.

TREATMENT OF SMALL-POX.—Dr. W. Field, of Wilmington, (Del.,) says: Having much experience in the cure of scarlet fever and small-pox, of the most malignant type, I would thank you for the sake of humanity to publish a recipe, which, if carefully and faithfully carried out, will cure forty-five out of fifty cases, without calling on a physician:

Scarlet Fever.—For adults, give one tablespoonful of brewers' yeast in three tablespoonfuls of sweetened water, three times a day, and if the throat is much swollen, gargle with the yeast, and apply to the throat as a poultice, mixed with Indian meal. Use plenty of catnip tea, to keep the eruption out on the skin a few days.

Small-Pox.—Use the above doses of yeast three times a day, and take milk diet throughout the entire disease. Nearly every case can be cured without leaving a pock-mark.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—A Spanish woman, insane from the effects of liquor, attempted to commit suicide by burning herself, at her residence in San Francisco on Tuesday last. She set fire to her bed and jumped in the midst of the flames. She was seriously injured before her rescue could be effected.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.

The only Known Remedy
—FOR—
Diabetes, Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder, Inflamation of the Kidneys, Catarrh of the Bladder, &c., &c., &c.

For these diseases, it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. Are you troubled with that disgusting pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmbold's Buchu will relieve you.

Physicians and Others
PLEASE NOTICE.

I make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs and Juniper Berries, selected with care, prepared in vacuo and according to the rules of Pharmacy and Chemistry.

These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded. A Diuretic is that which acts upon the Kidneys. Helmbold's Extract Buchu acts gently. It is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action. For the satisfaction of all, see Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:

"BUCHU. Its odor is strong, diffusive and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, chronic catarrh of the Bladder, morbid irritation of the Bladder and Uretha, diseases of the Prostrate, and Retention or Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, chronic Rheumatism, cutaneous affections and Dropsy."

For further information see Professor Dewees' valuable works on the Practice of Physic. See remarks made by the celebrated Dr. Physic, of Philadelphia. See any and all standard works on Medicine.

Dr. Keyser is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical college and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia:

Mr. H. T. HELMBOLD—Dear Sir: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used or known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys; and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts. I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves, the simple decoction, tincture fluid extracts; and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Eighteen years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits, and without prejudice or partiality I give yours precedence over all others. I value your Buchu for its effects on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu, or any other proprietory compound of whatever name. Respectfully yours, etc.,
GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D., 140 Wood st.

I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise. WM. WEIGHTMAN, (firm of Powers & Weightman), Manufacturing chemists, Ninth and Brown streets, Phila.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are genuine preparations, and knowing that the intelligent refrain from using anything pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physicians' simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare Pharmaceutical preparations. These parties resort to various means of effecting sales, such as copying parts of advertisements of popular remedies and finishing with certificates. The science of medicine stands simple, pure and majestic, having fact for its basis, induction for its pillar, truth alone for its capital.

A Word of Caution.

Health is most important; and the afflicted should not use an advertised medicine, or any remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known to others besides the manufacturer, or until they are satisfied of the qualifications of the party so offering.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—Pursuant to notice, the County Teachers' Institute convened at Hesperian College on Thursday morning. The meeting was called to order by Superintendent Darby, and J. C. Ball and F. E. Baker were elected Secretaries. A. H. Pratt and W. F. Dickinson were appointed critics; J. M. Martin, F. X. Miller and J. M. Goode a committee on resolutions for discussion on Saturday. A resolution, affirming the necessity of corporeal punishment in school, was introduced by J. C. Ball, and discussed at length. A motion to adjourn intervened, and further discussion deferred until Friday morning, at which time, after a spirited argument, pro and con, the resolution was unanimously adopted. The Institute has thus far been well attended. The teachers from the various Districts exhibit a lively interest, and as a consequence the exercises are highly entertaining. Last evening State Superintendent Fitzgerald delivered a lecture before the Institute, in Templar Hall. A report of the lecture as well as other interesting exercises, was received too late for to-day's DEMOCRAT.

STREET CROSSINGS.—The welcome rain has brought with it at least one disagreeable feature—mud in surfeited abundance, which the condition of our streets thoroughly demonstrates. Travel on foot has become slippery, inconvenient and dangerous. Especially is this state of affairs disagreeable to the ladies. Well-constructed street-crossings are sadly needed throughout the town, and if these improvements are not considered necessary in a business point of view, their construction should at least be prompted by a spirit of gallantry and natural pride that citizens should feel in the cleanly appearance of the town.

VACCINATE.—We again urge upon the citizens of this county the necessity of vaccination. Because we have thus far escaped the ravages of small-pox, is no reason why the only known means of precaution should be neglected. Late accounts from San Francisco represent the disease very virulent in that city, and in view of the fact that there is constant travel on the various stage lines to Woodland from localities infected, the community is by no means safe from attack. It would be wise for all to use every precaution necessary.

ROADS.—The condition of our county roads since the rain is by no means in consonance with the ideas of refined weather critics. It is decidedly muddy, and in several instances bridges are sadly out of repair, for all of which the weather is not to be blamed. We have Road Overseers, who, in their goodness of heart, would exculpate the weather from unjust censure in the matter.

HUNTER HOUSE.—Dr. Hunter, proprietor of the Hunter House, (formerly Baker's Hotel), is sparing no pains in making many valuable improvements calculated to contribute to the comfort and convenience of his guests. The table is supplied with the best the market affords, and well-ventilated sleeping apartments are arranged for the weary.

METEORIC DISPLAY.—On Friday night, of last week, those of our citizens who were fortunate enough to be up at a late hour, were treated to a most magnificent spectacle. For four or five hours the heavens were illuminated by hundreds of brilliant meteors. The display is said to have exceeded in grandeur any exhibition of the kind ever before witnessed here.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.—The Trustees of Yolo District advertise for proposals to build a school house at Davisville. The work is to be begun as soon as possible, and when finished according to specifications the building will be a credit to the community for whose benefit it is to be erected.

DETAINED FOR POSTAGE.—Letters addressed as follows are detained at the Post-office in this place for non-payment of postage: S. D. Town, Petaluma; Mrs. Martha Poorman, Sacramento; Mrs. Ella L. Wheeler, San Francisco; Mr. Reddington, Woodland; Eugene Smart, Dover; Mrs. T. M. Hart, Sacramento.

WEATHER.—A glorious rain has visited this section during the week and active preparations are being made to commence seeding. The prospect for another good crop year is favorable and the farmers are rejoicing in anticipation of a reward for their labor.

LAUNDRY.—The laundry of W. W. Dennis has been fitted up in good style and the proprietor is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line. Orders left at McDonalds' shoe shop will be promptly attended to.

NEW LAW FIRM.—W. C. Wallace and W. W. Pendegast have entered into co-partnership in the practice of law—office in Napa City. It will be seen by reference to their card that they intend to practice in the Courts of Yolo.

RAILROAD EXCHANGE.—Fresh oysters are received every day, by Joe Heath, direct from San Francisco. Such delicacies are in demand at this season of the year.

DISSOLVED.—Drs. Peirson & Strong have dissolved co-partnership. See advertisement.

IN BLOOM.—The "Sun-flower." See ad.

BANK OF WOODLAND.—Woodland is to have a bank. A certificate of incorporation was filed with the Secretary of State on Thursday last. The capital stock is fixed at $100,000—with the right to increase the same to $500,000—divided into shares of $100 each. Trustees for the first three months: John D. Stevens, F. S. Freeman, John Hollinsworth, George Snodgrass, C. Nelson; H. C. Hemenway, J. Wilcoxen, H. F. Hastings and Frank Miller. The ground has been cleared for the foundation of a good substantial fire-proof building, to be erected on Main street, for the use of the Company. A number of prominent citizens, besides those included in the Board of Trustees, have taken stock in the bank.

A NOTICEABLE FACT.—That one way of appealing to a man's reason is through his eye. In these busy times men are so deeply immersed in the conduct of magnificent projects, that they forget all about the condition of their systems. and hence it is that the proprietors of the PLANTATION BITTERS, which cures dyspepsia, purifies the blood, improves the tone of the stomach, regulates the bowels, and, indeed, invigorates the whole inner man, are so active in advertising. In fact, advertisements are merely sky-rockets sent up to attract attention to a really good article.

MERRITT PRECINCT.—Judge Pratt decided a few days since that the vote of Merritt Precinct should be counted. This precinct, it will be remembered, was thrown out by the Board of Supervisors in consequence of a failure to comply with the requirements of the law on the part of those whose duty it was to make out and transmit the returns.

FESTIVAL.—Arrangements are being made by a number of ladies of this place to hold a festival at Templar Hall, on the evening of Thanksgiving day. The proceeds are to be appropriated towards liquidating the Hall debt. The purpose is a commendable one, and we predict a crowded house.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—A Quarterly Meeting of the M. E. Church will commence to-day, at 2 o'clock P. M., under the supervision of Rev. J. B. Hill, Presiding Elder.

ELECTRO SILICON.—This curious and valuable substance is confidently claimed to be the BEST ARTICLE ever discovered for cleaning and polishing Gold, Silver and Plated Ware, and all smooth metallic surfaces, of whatever description, including kitchen utensils of tin, copper, brass, steel, etc.

TO HEADS OF FAMILIES.—Are your little ones subject to croup? If so, don't fail to use NEWELL'S PULMONARY SURUP. A few doses given in time MAY SAVE THE LIFE OF A DARLING CHILD. Do not fail to have it on hand, if you would be safe and free from anxiety.

"IN TIME OF PEACE PREPARE FOR WAR."—So get a bottle of DR. E. COOPER'S UNIVERSAL MAGNETIC BALM, an unequalled preparation for Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Cramp. The instantaneous relief for Burns, Bruises and Sprains.

All the Profits of this Company are Divided Amongst the Policy-Holders!!

There are no stock-holders to get the largest share of its profits, as in the "Continental," "North America," "Manhattan," and other credit Companies. Beware of part Note and Credits! See what the following Companies owe on (useless) Premium Notes; Continental, organized in 1866, $275,336 44; New England, organized in 1844, $1,843,497 84; North Western, organized in 1859, $625,292. Some of these Companies have lately assumed the grave and questionable responsibility of advertising under their officers' signatures that their notes or loans would be offset by dividends. (See Barnes' Report for 1868.) In order to cancel their notes by dividends, they would have to assess their Policy-holders from 40 to 77 per cent.

The Reasons for Insuring

—IN THE—

NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL

Life Insurance Company,

OF BOSTON.

By the Acts of Massachusetts, incorporated into the General Statutes of 1860 and 1864, a Policy of Life Insurance for the benefit of a Married Woman, or any person or persons specified, goes to them independently of the debts and liabilities of the party who effects the policy.

An Act to Regulate the Forfeiture of Policies of Life Insurance.

Be it Enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1.—No Policy of Insurance on Life, hereafter issued by any Company chartered by the authority of this Commonwealth, shall be forfeited or become void by the non-payment of premium thereon, any further than regards the right of the party insured therein to have it continued in force beyond a certain period, to be determined as follows, to-wit: The net value of the policy, when the premium becomes due and is not paid, shall be ascertained, according to the "combined experience" or "actuaries'" rate of mortality, with interest at four per cent. per annum. After deducting from such net value any indebtedness to the company or notes held by the company against the insured, which notes if given for premium shall then be canceled, four-fifths of what remains shall be considered as a net single premium of temporary insurance, and the term for which it will insure shall be determined according to the age of the party at the time of the lapse of the premium, and the assumptions of mortality and interest aforesaid.

SECTION 2.—If the death of the party occur within the term of temporary insurance covered by the value of the policy, as determined in the previous section, and if no condition of the insurance, other than the payment of premium shall have been violated by the insured, the company shall be bound to pay the amount of the policy the same as if there had been no lapse of premium, anything in the policy to the contrary notwithstanding: provided, however, that notice of the claim and proof of the death shall be submitted to the company within ninety days after decease; and provided, also, that the company shall have the right to deduct from the amount insured in the policy the amount at six per cent. per annum of the premiums that had been forborne at the time of the death.

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

Three Old Saws.

If the world seems cold to you,
Kindle fires to warm it!
Let their comfort hide from view
Winters that deform it.
Hearts as frozen as your own
To that radiance gather;
You will soon forget to moan,
"Ah! the cheerless weather!"

If the world's a wilderness,
Go, build houses in it!
Will it help your loneliness
On the winds to din it?
Raise a hut, however slight;
Weeds and branches smother;
And to roof and meal invite
Some forlorner brother.

If the world's a vale of tears,
Smile till rainbows span it!
Breathe the love that life endears,
Clear from clouds to fan it.
Of your gladness lend a gleam
Unto souls that shiver;
Show them how dark Sorrow's stream
Blends with Hope's bright river!

We are amused and annoyed, pleased, and half disposed to be angry, with an instance of maternal solicitude, of which we were made the innocent victim a few days since. We had spent the evening from our boarding-house, and on the following morning were subjected to a catechising after this manner:

"You were out last night?"
"Yes, madame."
"Was you at the office?"
"No, madame."
"Was you far away?"
"Not very."
"Spending the evening with some lady friend, perhaps?"
"Yes, madame."
"Ah, very pleasant to do that."
"Very."
"Who was she, Mr. S.?"
"Lord, madame"—we began to be a little impatient—"if you and your amiable daughter must know, I called on the wash-woman to get my other shirt."
The landlady vanished.

An old lady once triumphantly pointed to the "Epistle to the Romans," and asked where one could be found addressed to the Protestants? This was equal to an old negro Baptist at the South, who said to his master, a Methodist:

"You've read the Bible, I s'pose?"
"Yes."
"Well, you've read in it of John the Baptist, hasn't you?"
"Yes."
"Well, you never saw nothing 'bout no John the Methodist, did you?"
"No."
"Well, den, you see dere's Baptist in the Bible, but dere ain't no Methodist; and de Bible's on my side."

A funny story is told of the second raising of a meeting-house in Connecticut, when a young man was called upon to deacon an appropriate hymn. He repeated, in a clear and solemn voice, the lines—

Except the Lord does build the house
The workmen toil in vain;

Which were sung by the people with usual solemnity, when the rogue gave out, with equal seriousness—

Except the Lord doth shingle it,
'Twill tumble down again.

A preacher, not long since, discoursing to the boys in the New Hamshire State Reform School upon the fact that the good were respected, while the bad were shunned, attempted to illustrate it by saying: "Now, boys, when I walk on the street I speak to some and not to others; what, now, makes the difference?" supposing, of course, they would say, "because some are good and some are bad;" but he was much astonished to hear the little fellow sing out, "Because some are rich and some are poor."

A pretty girl was annoyed by the impertinences of a conceited beau at a wedding party.

"Do you know what I was thinking of all the time during the ceremony?" he asked.
"No, sir; how should I?"
"Why, I was blessing my stars that I was not the bridegroom."
"And I have no doubt that the bride was doing the same thing," said the girl, and left him to think it over again.

In a case of assault, the defendant pleaded guilty. "I think I must be guilty," said he, "because the plaintiff and me were the only ones in the room, and the first thing I knew I was staading up and he was doubled over the stove. You'd better call it guilty."

"I buy two cravats, which last me a whole year," said the famous bach, "a black one and a white one. In about six months the one does business for the other. The black by constant use, becomes rather white; and the white turns very black."

Pleasure is necessarily reciprocal; no one feels, who does not at the same time give it. To be pleased, one must please. What pleases you in others, will in general please them in you.

The Mobile Tribune says the play of "The Drunkard," the other evening at the theatre, had such an effect on the audience that none of the old soaks present went out between acts to take a drink.

A notice of a recent steamboat explosion in a western paper ends as follows: "The captain swam ashore. So did the chambermaid; she was insured for $15,000, and loaded with iron."

One of the compositors in the Toledo Blade office having got married, the enthusiastic local says, in a complimentary notice, "Joe never did shirk a lean take."

"How is your husband this afternoon, Mrs. Quiggs?" "Why, the doctor says as how if he lives till morning he shall have some hopes of him; but if he don't, he must give him up."

"Come here, my dear, I want to ask you all about your sister. Now tell me truly, has she got a beau?" "No, its the jaunders, the doctor says."

It is said that as the twig is bent, the tree's inclined. Some of the young ladies about town will grow queerly if the Grecian style prevails very long.

A certain doctor asked Diogenese which he thought was the best way to die. "Surely," said he, "you might have learned that from your patients."

At a bachelor's dinner, recently, one crusty old wit gave as a toast—"Matrimony: The maiden's prayer and the widow's might."

The conventional advice for people to strictly keep the promise is bad. Perform them—don't keep them.

THE NEW

WEED
SEWING MACHINE!

Just completed, in SOLID STEEL MACHINERY, and combining in ONE the good of ALL!

This most enterprising Company has certainly brought out

THE BEST SEWING MACHINE EVER MADE!

And indeed is the ONLY NEW Sewing Machine, of any name, manufactured for the last eight years. Even a superficial observer can easily see that it surpasses all others, at least in the simplicity and durabilty of its machinery, and its remarkable

EASE OF MOTION AND MANAGEMENT.

It has few pieces, and all of steel. It makes the complete "Lock Stitch," the same on both sides, which will not ravel. Every Machine is warranted to sew from Thinest Lace, to Double Harness Leather!

and of course can never be got out of order by "hard sewing." ☞ All repairs free of charge. Prices same as others.

PLEASE NOTICE.

The claims of the Florence Company for the First Premium at the great Paris Exposition of 1867, though seeming true in letter, is really false in spirit and intent, and calculated greatly to deceive the public. Although it did receive the Silver Medal—that being the highest award given—it was not awarded the FIRST RANK! This was awarded the Weed Sewing Machine, and to the WEED only, as being "first in the order of merit." The second place was given to an European Machine, and only the third to the Florence! But the claim of the Wheeler & Wilson Company, at this Fair, is a great outrage, both as to letter and spirit; at least so much of it as pertains to their Gold Medal upon their Family Machine, which, to speak plain, is purely imaginary, they having received—as is well known—their Gold Medal on their "Button-hole Machine," but nothing at all on their "Family Machine;" not even a bronze medal, nor indeed (what is worse) even an "honorable mention." (See official report.) See also, as to the new WEED Sewing Machine, the returns of the State Fairs of Pennsylvania, Illinois, New Hampshire and New York, for 1867, at each of which the NEW WEED "F. F." Sewing Machine was pronounced the BEST, and received the highest premium given. And so also at other Fairs, and indeed wherever the Company shall choose to exhibit the "strong points" of this really magnificent Machine.

A FEW SELECTIONS

From a Mass of Testimony now on File.

NEWARK, Licking Co., Ohio,
August 19th, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gents: My wife having received so much benefit from the use of your Bitters, I deem it my duty to give testimony in their favor. About one and a half years since, she had a severe attack of Dysentery or Bloody Flux, which became chronic and continued for the above period of time, baffling the most skillful physicians in the country. We finally became discouraged, and gave up all hopes of her recovery, when, by accident my attention was called to your most valuable Bitters by Messrs. Collins & Thurston, druggists, handing me one of your Almanacs. Finding them recommended for Bloody Flux, I bought one bottle and commenced giving according to directions; and before one-third of the bottle had been taken she was entirely cured, and enjoys perfectly good health at this time.

Most respectfully yours, W. D. Nutter.

BRANCHVILLE, Ala., March 11th, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Dear Sirs: I am hardly able to express my gratitude for the benefit I have derived from the use of your Stomach Bitters. I have been afflicted with Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia for more than five years, from which I have suffered no little. My physicians failed to give me permanent relief. I became melancholy and unhappy; my constitution was much broken down by using mercury. Accidentally meeting with one of your Almanacs, it induced me to procure a few bottles of your Bitters, which afforded me very great relief, and it is my sincere opinion that they will soon effect a permanent cure. I was pronounced incurable, and my recovery through your Bitters will be little short of a miracle. My neighbors express surprise at seeing me so much improved in health, and look upon my rapid recovery as wonderful. Gratefully yours, Robert F. Newton, P. M.

Turner, Androscoggin Co., Me.,
Feb. 22, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gents: I lost my health in the army, am a great sufferer from dyspepsia and other complaints. I have commenced taking your Bitters, and fully believe they have done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken before. Yours respectfully, B. J. Hood.

Cincinnati, Jan. 16, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Gents: I have sold your Bitters for the past ten years, part of the time in a malarious district of Mississippi. Have used them myself as a protective and cure for chills, and I have known many others to do so with perfect satisfaction. I take great pleasure in recommending "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" to the public. Very respectfully, A. G. Parker,
Of Parker & Yorstman, cor. Center ave. and Chestnut street.

Helena, Montana Territory, July 6, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Gents: We have sold your Bitters for three years in this Territory, and can truly say it is one of the most popular and valuable remedies. There is no one preparation that has a larger sale, or that gives more general satisfaction in this locality. Yours, &c.,
Parchen & Paynter, Druggists.

Chenoa, Ill., Oct. 25, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gents: We have sold your Bitters for 16 years. We have found it to give universal satisfaction. We sell more of it than any other Bitters, and take pleasure in recommending it to the public.
Yours respectfully, Miller & Bostock.

Spraker's Basin, July 19th, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gents: I have been afflicted with Scrofulous and Bilious Complaints for a long time, and physicians could give me no relief. By the advice of your agent I purchased a bottle of your Stomach Bitters, and, strange to say, one bottle cured me entirely. I would recommend it to all who are afflicted in the same way. Respectfully yours,
Salmon Allen.

Salem, Ohio, May 1, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gents: I have prescribed your Bitters in a great number of cases of Dyspepsia, and as a Tonic in cases of general debility, and have found it to answer the most sanguine expectations. Respectfully,
S. D. Hardman, M. D.,
Formerly Physician to the Cincinnati Marine Hospital; Member of the London Medical Society of Observation, &c.

P. S.—I send you the above voluntarily, and you may use it as you desire.

Spraker's Basin, July 29th, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gents: For the past two years I have been afflicted with Chronic Disease and weak stomach. I have tried a great many medicines, but I have received no benefit. I was at last advised to try your celebrated Stomach Bitters, and to my great astonishment it has entirely relieved me. I have recommended it to others, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. Joel O'Brien.

The above writer is personally known to me, and I can vouch for the correctness of his statement. Henry Cohen,
Postmaster, Spraker's Basin.

Anderson C. H., S. C., April 22, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Gents: About the 15th of December last, I had a severe attack of Rheumatism, which debilitated my frame so much that I was reduced to a mere skeleton. I was recommended by my cousin J. J. Baker, to try a bottle of your celebrated Bitters. I did so, and must confess that I am now in good health, and attribute it entirely to your Genuine Bitters. Very truly yours,
John Davis, jr.

Kenton, Hardin Co., Ohio, March 8, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gents: I have been using your Bitters for the last ten or twelve years, and confidently say they are all you recommend them to be. So necessary have I found them to my health that I cannot do without them. Yours respectfully,
Lewis A. Miller.

Virginia City, Montana Ter.,
July 6, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Gents: I have been severely afflicted with Heartburn and Dyspepsia, and have tried almost all remedies, but without avail. Finally I was recommended to try your Stomach Bitters. I did so, and, after using a few bottles, was entirely restored to health. I now weigh 180 pounds.

I still continue to take your Bitters, and would not be without them. I consider them the only efficacious remedy of the kind in the market. When taken as directed, they will always prove a sovereign remedy to those afflicted with Dyspepsia or diseases of a like nature. Respectfully yours, M. Marx.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gents—It is with the greatest pleasure that I recommend your Stomach Bitters to the public. I think it the best Bitters of the day. It is especially adapted to the South and West, where biliary derangements of the liver are prevalent. Ten years' experience in the use of compounds as curatives compels me to give your Bitters the preference that its popularity merits.

A. Angle, M. D.
Gallatia, Saline Co., Ill.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gentlemen—I have practiced medicine for many years, and have used your Bitters in a number of cases with great success, and take pleasure in recommending them to the public in general.

Very respectfully, J. Smith, M. D.
Mattoon, Ill., Jan. 21, 1865.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gentlemen—I sell more of your Stomach Bitters than of any other medicine. Parties who have tried them speak in very high praise of their excellent virtues. I have used them myself, and prescribe them with unparalleled success. Very respectfully yours, G. T. Gilner, M. D.

N. B.—The genuine Bitters are sold in bottles only. All persons who pretend to sell the article by the gallon or barrel are imposters, and the stuff they offer is a worthless and probably poisonous counterfeit.
